

Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct is a summation and declaration of acceptable, ethical, and professional behaviour by which all Yoga Alliance Professionals Registered Yoga Teachers agree to conduct the teaching and business of yoga.

As a registrant on Yogarise Teacher Training, I agree to uphold the following ethical principles: Conduct myself in a professional and conscientious manner. This includes, but is not limited to, ensuring that my practices and behavior conform to the representations I make about myself in holding myself out as a yoga practitioner.

Acknowledge the limitations of my skills and scope of practice and where appropriate, refer students to seek alternative instruction, advice, treatment or direction.

Create and maintain a safe, clean and comfortable environment for the practice of yoga.

Encourage diversity by respecting all students regardless of age, physical limitations, race, creed, gender, ethnicity, religion or sexual orientation.

Respect the rights, dignity and privacy of all students.

Avoid words and actions that constitute sexual harassment or harassment.

Adhere to the traditional yoga principles as written in the yamas and niyamas.

Follow all local government and national laws that pertain to my yoga teaching and business.

I agree to comply with the conditions and requirements as set out in the course curriculum, and accept that failure to do so will disqualify me from any accreditation. I furthermore vow to uphold the standards of the teachings I have been given, and to maintain and promote the good name of yoga at all times.

I accept that failure to do so may lead to the annulment of any accreditation obtained from Yogarise Teacher Training.
